

DAUGHTER OF THE REV. J. F. WILLIAMS BECOMES JUNE BRIDE OF L. W. MERRILL

A VERY pretty June wedding was solemnized Thursday afternoon, at four o'clock at the First Baptist church on Myrtle avenue, when Miss Martha Lueh Williams and Les Warren Merrill were united in marriage. The color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the decorations of the church as well as in the dresses of the young women. The rostrum was lined with baskets of roses and lilies, also bunches and clusters of other kinds of flowers, all of pink and white. Between the flowers were potted ferns, rubber plants and palms. Mrs. E. W. Earl played several selections on the organ before the ceremony. Just before the couple entered the church, Frank Cheek, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. E. W. Earl, sang a vocal solo, "Because," by Guy D'Arbanville. The bride entered the church from the left on the arm of her father, Rev. J. F. Williams, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, and the groom came in on the right with his best man, P. E. Johnson.

The separate parties passed down the aisles of the church and met in front of the altar, below the rostrum, where a large shaded red light threw a pretty glow on the ceremony. Rev. J. F. Williams, father of the bride, united the couple in marriage. The bride wore a white cloth suit with heavily embroidered cuffs and unembroidered border on the coat. Her hat was a single little leghorn with a full white bird on the top. She carried an arm bouquet of red and white roses tied with a large bow of white tulle and satin ribbon. The ushers wore large picture hats of white leghorn and pink chiffon. Their dresses were pink silk with corded hems and three flounce white lace pattern, and three flounce white lace pattern. Their shoes were silver and white. They carried large corsage bouquets of pink sweet peas tied with pink tulle. The bridesmaids were Isabelle Springer, Opal Corn, Zenobia Light, Mary L. Hester, Alice Bishop and Vera Hunt.

After the wedding the young couple bade their many friends farewell from the rostrum. Mr. and Mrs. Merrill left for Greenville, Texas, where they will spend the honeymoon. The bride's home is at El Paso. The groom's home is at Greenville, Texas. The bride's father, Rev. J. F. Williams, is the son of Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Merrill, of Greenville, Texas. After the wedding the young couple will return to El Paso and spend the remainder of the summer at the home of the bride's parents on Myrtle avenue. They will make their future home in El Paso.

Miss Ruth Francis Howard and James L. Howard were united in marriage at the home of the bride's father, Rev. J. F. Williams, at the eight o'clock mass Friday morning. Women's Organizations.

The Alta Vista Embroidery and Crocheting club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred H. Dougherty, on White Oak street. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with fancy work and music. Mrs. John Reese played several piano solos. The decorations were various colored sweet pea blossoms in all the rooms. The hostess served an ice course, assisted by Mrs. E. E. Taylor and Mrs. Wm. Almsbury. Punch was served on the porch during the afternoon. The guests were Mrs. Wm. Almsbury and Mrs. DeForest Meade. The members present were Mesdames E. E. Taylor, W. C. Smith, Harvey A. Wilson, N. C. Hunt, John Reese, W. E. Dawson and Fred H. Dougherty. Miss Clint Aldum was made a member of the club. Mrs. N. C. Hunt will entertain the club at its next meeting.

The El Paso Equal Franchise league met Thursday afternoon in the chamber of commerce and attended to a number of business matters. The committee appointed to see Mayor Tom Lea about appointing a matron to be given the keys to the city, met this afternoon. The committee reported that there are no funds to provide for a matron for the jail, but that they would like to have the earliest attention. On the committee are Mrs. L. L. Mundy, Mrs. E. L. Lane and Mrs. Brooks Jones. It was reported that there are so far five babies at the baby sanatorium in Cloudcroft and that they are doing nicely. The coming moving picture display of scenes in the Yosemite National park and lecture, which will be given by Miss Mildred Leo Clements on the evening of June 15, at 8 o'clock, in the chamber of commerce building, was announced. This will be open to the public. Miss Clements is giving the exhibition of views of the Yosemite park all over the country to arouse interest among people to see the beauties of their own land. The following letter was received from company K, 4th Texas Infantry, desiring to thank you for the trunk of articles, which are necessities in the field. At receipt today we were glad and proud to receive the trunk and with great pride and enthusiasm, we received his gifts from the patriotic women of El Paso. With best wishes for the citizenship of our home town, and the women who contributed to the trunk of gifts, we remain, yours very truly. The letter is signed by every member of the company.

Mrs. S. M. Benner entertained a few friends at her home on Indiana avenue Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in doing fancy work and later an ice course was served.

Miss Katherine Peak, who is soon to be a bride, was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower given by Miss Margaret Cunningham Thursday afternoon at her home, in Richmond terrace. Pink sweet peas decorated the room attractively. The name of 42 formed the afternoon's diversion and Mrs. A. Howard was the high score prize. The shower gifts were literally showered upon the bride to be from a large host of friends. A two course luncheon was served at the same time later in the afternoon. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by Misses Margaret Bush and Dorothy Whinn and Mrs. J. H. Cunningham. Among the guests present were Katharine Peak, Mrs. E. L. Lane, Lila Thomas, Esther Harrington, Ernestine Murry, Dorothy Whinn, Vera Ballard, Mesdames J. C. Ballard, J. J. Auer, Harry N. Miller, George R. Oliver, W. R. Meese, J. R. Meese, E. A. Peak, S. Dances.
Miss Beale Taylor and Capt. Percy Weir Arnold, whose marriage will occur soon, were the guests of honor at a very delightful party, given Thursday night at Fort Bliss at the home of Capt. and Mrs. George C. Barnhart, by Capt. and Mrs. Barnhart and Capt. and Mrs. William Kelly. The evening was stretched across the lawn and dancing was enjoyed through the evening. Among the foliage of the trees overhead were strung numerous strands of colored and blue electric lights. The Elkhart cavalry band played for the dancing. Punch was served during the evening. Attractive corner corners were arranged with rugs and chairs about the porch and under the trees. There were about 150 guests, including most of the army people stationed here, and many El Paso people.

The West Valley Country club dance Thursday night was a pleasant affair, although the attendance was somewhat small. Among some of those present were Capt. and Mrs. Milo C. Corey, Mr. and Mrs. A. McKee, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Long, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Golly, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. HELP FOR WORKING WOMEN

Some Have to Keep on Until They Almost Drop. How Mrs. Conley Got Help.

Here is a letter from a woman who had to work, but was too weak and suffered too much to continue. How she regained health—

Frankfort, Ky.—"I suffered so much with female weakness that I could not do my own work, had to hire it done. I heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I tried it. I took three bottles and I found it to be all my claim. Now I feel as well as ever I did and am able to do all my own work again. I recommend it to any woman suffering from female weakness. You may publish my letter if you wish."—Mrs. JAMES CONLEY, 516 St. Clair St., Frankfort, Ky.

No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

All women are invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it will be confidential.

SHE WAS A WERE SKELETON

This Lady Suffered From Severe Pain in Left Side, Was Very Weak, and Confined to Bed For Month at a Time

Oklahoma City, Okla.—Mrs. Dora Funderburg, of this city, says: "When I was 14 years old I was very poorly, and was told that my case was very bad. The medicine I took did me no good, and I only spent my money for nothing, as I got no relief, but when I commenced taking Cardui I began improving."

Before taking Cardui I was a mere skeleton, and was very weak and was confined to my bed at times, sometimes as long as a month at a time. I was unable to go to school regularly for two years, on account of my bad health. I had cramping every month, and a severe pain in my left side.

My mother told me of Cardui, and after taking one bottle I was greatly relieved of the pains. I have continued taking it until I feel like a different woman, and I cannot praise Cardui enough. I am now gaining in weight, and all my friends that see me speak of how much better I look in the last month, and I tell them I am taking Cardui. I highly recommend it to all suffering women."

Try taking Cardui for your troubles. Get a bottle today. You won't regret giving it a trial. Your druggist sells it.—Adv.
